Frivolous cases filed in courts

814. MISS SAROJ KHAPARADE: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that quite a good number of frivolous cases are filed in the courts including High Courts and Supreme Court; and

(b) if so, what remedial action Government propose to take to stop the menace?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI H.R. BHARDWAJ): (a) It is not possible to indicate the number of frivolous cases being filed in Courts, because, there is no yardstick by which the Registry can decide that a matter is frivolous.

(b) In order to consider the problem of arrears of cases in Courts and find out ways and means to deal within it as expeditiously as possible, a meeing of the Chief Ministers and Chief Justices of the High Courts was held on 4th December, 1993 under the Chairmanship of the Prime Minister. The Conference recommended that every State should establsih a Committee consisting of, among others, the Advocate General of the State and the Remembrancer of Legal Affairs/Law Secretary (Judicial) of the State, to go into the question of elimination of avoidable litigation and to suggest appropriate remedial measures. They also recommended that this Committee should consider the categories of cases which could be withdrawn if they were pending for more than a specified number of years. The resolutions adopted in the Conference have been commended to all the State Govt/UT Administrations/High Courts for necessary follow-up action.
